

Operations Specialist of the Year

Eligibility: This award is limited to individuals who are currently active as a Simulation Operations Specialist (or equivalent job title). Minimum of two (2) years experience as a Simulation Operations Specialist.. Active member of the Simulation Operations and Technology Section (SOTS). Award winners from the previous year(s) are ineligible.

Recipients of this award will have demonstrated their excellence as Simulation Operations Specialists consistently, over a minimum period of two (2) years. They have made demonstrable contributions to the field of Healthcare Simulation Operations.

Criteria:

1. Functions beyond / expands the scope of his / her position.
2. Demonstrated superior simulation-based education support through initiative and creativity. Completed through any of the following:
 - a. Significantly improves a work process or system
 - b. Increased the technical efficiency of an operation or department
 - c. Contributes to the mission and vision of SSH and his/her organization.
3. Actively promotes the profession of Simulation Operations Specialist through:
 - a. Serving as faculty for presentations, webinars, and workshops.
 - b. Serving on professional committees and workgroups.
 - c. Advocacy at the local, regional, national, or international level,
 - d. Develops mentoring relationships with junior Operations Specialists.
 - e. Other related activities.
4. Demonstrated record of professional development and advanced training.

Interested individuals should submit their online application prior to the deadline.